

Estate of Farmer Mundy - Sale of Effects

WINTERBOURNE GUNNER.

To be SOLD by AUCTION, on the premises, by B. LEWIS, on Thursday the 12th of November, 1789 and following day,

All the HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE, Plate, and Linen, together with all the remaining stock of Husbandry, of the late Farmer Mundy; consisting of four narrow-wheel waggons, one of which has iron axles, and lately built, a caravan, and strong cart, new last summer, three sets of harness, two of them almost new, five strong draft horses, and one hackney,

The furniture consists of bedsteads and furniture, feather-beds, blankets, and quilts, mahogany chests of drawers, and tables, a variety of kitchen furniture, brewing utensils, &c.

The sale to begin precisely at eleven o'clock each morning.

N.B. The horses, waggons and farming flock to be sold in the first day's sale.

Salisbury & Winchester Gazette, 9 November 1789