

Shooting Accidents

Two accidents, of a similar nature, have happened to sportsmen in this neighbourhood, within these few days.

Mr. Stride, of Woodford, and Mr. Rowden, Jnr., of Wishford, whilst out shooting, had the misfortune to have their guns burst, and each of them had a hand so much shattered, as to be obliged to undergo amputation. The latter is a young man, about twenty-three years of age.

Salisbury and Winchester Journal, Monday, 2 January 1809