

Wesleyan Chapel, Worton

Wesleyan Services

The Wesleyans at this place [Worton] have been holding their anniversary services in connection with a new Sunday school and the renovating of the chapel. Two sermons were preached on Sunday the 19th by Mr. A. Stratton, of Melksham, and on the following Tuesday a tea meeting was held, followed by a sale of useful articles, which was a great success. The meeting, after tea, was presided over by T. Harris, esq., of Calne, and was addressed by the Rev. E. Doubleday. Messrs Moore, Lee, and others. On Sunday las two sermons were preached by Mr. Hamblin, of Westbury, to crowded congregations. The result is that over fifty pounds has been realised.
