

1827

On the day after Christmas Day, the fifth distribution of the Penny Clothing Club was made at the Parsonage House, Wylze, which was set on foot by the desire and chiefly supported by the liberality of the Earl of Pembroke, and also by that of the Rev. Wm. and Mrs Moody. The different members expressed themselves very grateful. Salisbury and Winchester Journal, 1 January 1827