In this third volume of Wiltshire Registers, the Editors are able to print the Marriage Registers of eleven parishes in widely distributed parts of the County. Five of these commence in the sixteenth century—those of East Knoyle as early as 1538—and the remaining six in the seventeenth. The majority of them are practically complete from the dates at which they respectively commence to the end of 1812, but in the case of Milston they are extraordinarily defective.

The Milston Registers begin in 1540, but age is the only thing that can be mentioned in their favour. Every student of local history has probably heard that the Register of Baptisms is incomplete—the volume which contained the entry of Addison's Baptism in 1672 being missing—but it is not so generally known that there is really only one Register of Marriages. This is the volume beginning in 1540 and ending in the middle of the next century with the entry of a marriage on 18 October “anno servitutis Anglicanæ tertio”—presumably 1651. The next volume has been lost; the third, a parchment book, contains no regular entries of Marriage, but it does contain a list of sixty Marriages between the years 1704 and 1734 on a paper leaf. From this time to the end of 1812 there is no Register of Marriages. The Bishop's Transcripts at Salisbury have been searched, and some entries extracted from them; but here again disappointment is met, for no Transcripts have been found for the years 1741 to 1794.

In the adjoining parish of Bulford, the Registers are defective. The earliest volume runs from 1654 to 1690, and the next from 1791 to 1812. And in Allington, also in the same neighbourhood, the first Register, which has the date 1598 on the cover, contains no entry of Marriage until 1664. In both these cases, and again in Boscombe where the Registers begin in 1696, some extracts from the Bishop's Transcripts partly fill the gaps.

The Editors desire to express their thanks for the kind co-operation of the clergy who have given permission and facilities for the transcription of the Registers, and in some cases have made the transcription themselves. They are especially indebted to the Rev. Canon Milford, of East Knoyle, the Rev. J. Lemon Redfern, of Ashley, who transcribed the Registers of Crudwell and Long Newnton, in addition to his own, the Rev. C. J. Johnstone, late Rector of Stockton, the Rev. C. S. Ruddle, of Durrington, who has transcribed the Registers of Milston, Bulford, Newton Tony, Allington and Boscombe, and to Mr. Thomas H. Baker who transcribed the Britford Marriage Registers.

The following contractions are used in these volumes :—

w.=widower or widow.	p.=of the parish of.
sp.=spinster, or single woman.	co.=in the county of.
b.=bachelor, or single man.	dioc.=in the diocese of.
s.=son of.	lic. =marriage licence.
d.=daughter of.

It must be remembered that these transcripts of the Registers are not "evidence" in the legal sense. Certificates, if required, must be obtained from the Clergy who have custody of the Registers.

The Editors will be greatly obliged for further assistance in the transcription of Registers, as it is only by means of this assistance that the work can be carried on, and what still remains of these valuable records preserved to posterity.

Marriages at East Knoyle,

1538 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Registers of this parish are probably as complete as any in Wiltshire. They begin in 1538, immediately after the Order of the Vicar-General in that year, and are continued with more or less regularity down to the present day.

Vol. I is of parchment, 18 in. by 7 in. It no doubt superseded an older one of paper, from which the earlier entries were copied in compliance with the Order issued in 1597. The parchment volume begins with an entry dated 3 Nov., 1538, and the entries are continuous until the first lapse occurs; there are no entries between 12 February, 1554-5, and 7 July, 1560; none between 23 Dec., 1595, and 4 June, 1600. Other lapses occur between 20 Jan., 1610-11, and 28 Nov., 1614; between 22 Sept., 1620, and 16 April, 1623, and again between 27 April, 1635, when the "troubles" of King Charles I and the Parliament were coming to a head, and 3 July, 1654, after the Commonwealth Order for the appointment of a "Parish Register." This officer was duly appointed on 23 Feb., 1653-4, but other lapses occurred between 29 Dec., 1657, and 9 Feb., 1662-3, and between 2 Oct., 1732, and 27 Jan., 1740-1. The volume ends on 27 Dec., 1752, and a further lapse occurs between that date and the commencement of the next volume.

Vol. II is of paper bound in brown calf, as are all the succeeding ones. It begins on 14 April, 1754, and ends on 15 Oct., 1787.

Vol. III continues the record from 19 Nov., 1787, to 11 Sept., 1803, and Vol. IV from 19 Sept., 1803, to the end of 1812.

The Parish of East Knoyle, or Bishops Knoyle, included within its boundaries the Chapelry of Hindon—a borough which until 1832 returned two members to Parliament—and it was only in 1869 that a district was assigned to the Church of St. John the Baptist, commonly known as the Royal Free Chapelry of Hindon.

These transcripts have been made by the Rev. Canon Robert Newman Milford, M.A., Rector of East Knoyle, who has kindly collated them with the original Register, and they are printed with his permission.

Marriages at Britford,

1573 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Registers of this parish prior to 1813 are contained in five volumes.

Volume I contains the Marriages from 6 Aug. 1573 to 16 Feb. 1639-40; it is of parchment, both leaves and covers, and measures 10½in. by 6in. It is in a fair state of preservation, but there is a gap between 19 Feb. 1588-9 and 28 May 1599. There is no positive evidence of any leaves having been taken out, but as the gap occurs in the middle of the book, two leaves may have been removed without any trace of them having been left.

Volume II is not so well preserved. The writing is in many places very bad and almost illegible, the ink, too, is frequently much faded. This volume contains the Marriage entries from 29 June 1640 to 4 April 1719.

Volume III continues them to 1754. It is of parchment, bound in rough calf, and measures 13in. by 11in.

Volumes IV and V continue the entries down to the end of 1812, and are made up of the usual printed forms.

These transcripts have been made by Mr. T. H. Baker, who has kindly collated them with the original Registers; and they are printed with the permission of the Rev. T. J. Woodall, the Vicar of Britford.

Marriages at Ashley,

1658 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Marriage entries at Ashley prior to the end of the year 1812 are contained in two registers. The first of these is an old parchment book commencing in 1658, and the entries continue regularly, with some gaps, till 1708. There are no Marriages entered between 22 June 1662 and 20 August 1676, none between 15 January 1679-80 and 7 May 1696, and none between 8 August 1708 and 6 October 1721; but four entries out of their proper order follow the latter date—for the years 1710-9. Then beginning at other end, the book turned the opposite way, are entries of Deaths and Baptisms to 1773, with scattered entries of Marriages among them, from 1710 to 1745; but there is much confusion, entries of the years 1709 and 1771 being found on the same page, and on the next an entry of 1709, followed by one of 1720, and another of 1767. Another gap occurs here, from 9 December 1736 to 19 April 1741. The book consists of 32 pages, spaces here and there blank and parts cut away, while some leaves are gone altogether. The writing varies much, some of the earlier entries being so microscopic as to be nearly illegible. It is noticeable that the Marriages entered between April 1658 and June 1662 are out of all proportion to the population—a large number were those of non-parishioners.

Volume II is a Marriage Register Book printed for the Parish Church of Ashley 1754 (Simon Seek, Churchwarden); and is also a Banns Book, the Marriages being recorded, when they occur, immediately after the Banns.

In a register of Baptisms and Funerals, the last entry (a baptism) is dated 1812; twelve leaves have been cut out, and then on the back, inside, there is a Baptism and a Burial in 1812, in July and September, and then a Marriage, also 1812, with one name, Will. Robinson, written with a pencil. In the Marriage Register proper, the names of William Robertson and Marium Brown appear (7 Nov.). The name Seek, mentioned above, is found apparently in the Register under other forms, Zuick and Sick.

This transcription has been made and collated with the original Registers by the Rev. J. Lemon Redfern, Rector of Ashley, and is printed with his permission.

[The last entry in this Register.]

Marriages at Crudwell,

1662 to 1812.

NOTE.—The earliest Register of Crndwell is a strongly bound parchment volume in fair repair; the clasps are missing. Two or three leaves at the beginning are of paper, and are blank, except for one or two casual entries, and what appears to be a list of Churchwardens copied from an earlier list. There are nineteen sets of these, each containing two names: one reads "Widdow Overbury, Widdow Gryndie." Then follow four more, dated from 1725 to 1734. Over leaf, the page is taken up with an account of the Birth and Baptism (many at Estcot, Crudwell) of thirteen children of Thomas Earle, merchant, of Bristol, from 1657 to 1678 (a few are repeated under their own year), and of some descendants.

The Register begins with Burials and Baptisms of 1659; the first Marriage recorded is in 1662. These entries are in Latin, and, without exception, in Marriages the words used are uxorem duxit. From the beginning to 1680, the Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials are recorded as they occurred in each year, but from 1680 to 1694 no Burials seem to be recorded. From 1694 to 1753, each year has three separate lists; then the Marriages cease to appear with the Baptisms and Burials, but the Register continues to 1812; some pages have been cut out, and there are some blank places. After the last entry, some pages are empty, and many have been cut away. At the other end of the Register there are seventeen pages of certificates dated from 1678, the year of the Act of Parliament relating to Burials in woollen, to 1693—many of these are very full and drawn out in long detail.

The second Register is a Marriage and Banns Book, of strong paper, bound. The pages are numbered from 1 to 64. Two at the beginning are blank; the rest are ruled, and entirely written, without any printing. The entries are straightforward and continuous. The third is exactly similar, but the pages are fewer.

The entries have been transcribed by the Rev. J. Lemon Redfern, Rector of Ashley, who has kindly collated the proofs with the Registers, and they are printed with the permission of the Rev. H. Kenrick Adkin, Rector of Crudwell.

[The last entry in the Register.]

Marriages at Stockton,

1590 to 1812.

NOTE.—There are four volumes of Registers here for the period ended with 1812. The earliest is missing, as is unfortunately so frequently the case.

Vol. I, the earliest now existing, is a book bound in stiff parchment, with, formerly, brass clasps, and measuring 12in. by 7 $\frac{1}{4}$ in. It contains fifty-seven parchment leaves, with Marriage entries from 1590 to 1712. Page 12 has been defaced, but the entries have been carefully copied on page 14; page 13 is blank. The rest of the book contains entries of Baptisms and Burials. This is no doubt the Register described by Sir Richard Hoare as the most curious he had seen. The title page was blank, but has been filled up with an account of matters relating to the parish, such as the names of the Rectors and dates of institution, &c. On page 3 is an introduction by the Rev. Thomas Crockford, who, as he states, copied the earlier entries from an older book. This transcription is in Latin, and made in such a way as to give it almost the value of a parish history. Mr. Crockford was a scholar of Magdalen College, Oxford, in 1597; he was ordained in 1603; in the same year he became Schoolmaster of Stockton, where he resided fourteen years; and in 1613 he was inducted to the Vicarage of Fisherton Delamere. His marriage is entered in the Register under the date of 13 Jan., 1612-3.

Vol. II is of parchment, twenty-one leaves, size 12in. by 8in., and bound in stiff parchment. There are six pages of Marriage entries, from 1713 to 1755. Vol. III is also of parchment, containing fifty-four leaves, 12in. by 8 $\frac{3}{4}$ in., and bound in stiff parchment. There is only one entry of Marriage in it, and that is copied into volume IV. The rest of the volume contains the entries of Baptisms and Burials down to 1812.

Vol. IV is printed for Banns and Marriages and continues the record from 1755 to the end of 1812. It is 15in. by 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. in size, and is bound in cloth. The entries in all four volumes are for the most part well and clearly written.

These transcripts have been made by the Rev. C. J. Johnstone, M.A., the late Rector of Stockton, who has also kindly collated them with the originals. They are printed with the permission of the Rev. E. J. Pope, the present Rector.

Marriages at Long Newnton,

1653 to 1812.

NOTE.—The first Register of Long Newnton is a slight slender book in a limp cover. The Marriages come first up to 1675, then the Baptisms for certain years, and also the Burials in a few pages at the end. Some leaves have been entirely or partly cut away others are blank to a greater or less degree. Inside the cover it is stated "This Book was lost 24 yeares." At the end are two pages of Briefs, headed "A Register of those that have bin relieved in this parish." These entries include:— Merchants' wives in Turkey, generally about 2/6; fired houses; six distressed gentlewomen; a young man taken prisoner by "the Ostenders"; for the relief of the distressed Protestants in the Dukedom of Lithuania.

The next is a large Register, not in good repair. It begins with name-lists of Churchwardens and Overseers. The Burials begin with the year 1683. Sir William Estcourt, Bart., barbarously murdered in London 14 Nov. 1684, was buried at Newnton on the 22nd. Under date 9 Nov. 1724, there is a long and interesting note by the then Rector on an affidavit which should have been brought to him, but for obvious reasons was not. These entries end with the year 1739. Next, the Baptisms begin in 1683. It is interesting to notice what a large proportion of Baptisms took place on the day of birth, or the day following it. The last entry is 1739 also. Then come two pages of Marriages written the reverse way, 1734-1738; then the Marriages proper, the first in 1683, the last in 1732. At the other end of the Register are two pages and a half of Weather Notes, etc., and in different years we are told of frosts, severe rains, and flooding and damage by hail, and so on. Then a long and interesting note is made on the year 1702, and various exploits on sea and land which marked it. Vigo is mentioned, and successes of Admiral Sir George Rooke, Admiral Benbow, Captain Lake, and the Earl of Marlborough. The Notes are very full and they enter into much minute detail, being drawn out at great length.

The other two registers are written through out, the first being of parchment with very many leaves cut away, the other of paper.

These entries have been transcribed by the Rev. J. Lemon Redfern, Rector of Ashley, and are printed with the permission of the Rev. Francis Wrangham, Rector of Long Newnton, who has kindly collated them with the Registers.

Marriages at Milston,

1540 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Registers of this parish are in a deplorably deficient condition as regards the period with which this series is concerned.

There is only one Register of Marriages, deserving of the name, prior to 1813 in existence; this contains the Records from 1540 to 1651 [?], and is in very fair condition; it is a parchment book, measuring 11½ in. by 7⅛ in. The Register which followed is lost. The next volume is of parchment, and begins in 1703, but it contains entries of Baptism only; those of Marriage and Burial on the parchment have all been destroyed. There is, however, a paper leaf with Marriages between 1704 and 1734. There is no Marriage Register from 1734 to 1812. The deficiencies in the Registers have been to some extent met by extracts from the Bishop's Transcripts, but no Transcripts have been found in the Diocesan Registry for the period between February 1740-1 and April 1795.

These extracts, both from the Registers and the Bishop's Transcripts, have been made by the Rev. C. S. Ruddle, Rector of Durrington, those from the Registers have been collated with the originals, and they are printed with the permission of the Rev. F. A. Radcliffe, Rector of Milston.

Marriages at Bulford,

1608 to 1812.

NOTE.—As in the adjoining Parish of Milston, the Registers here are very defective. This may to some extent be accounted for by the probability that there was no resident clergyman at Bulford from the time of Charles II until that of the late Queen Victoria. The earliest Register seems to have perished, but some Marriages have been copied from the Bishop's Transcripts preserved in the Diocesan Registry.

Volume I, of those at present existing, begins in 1654 and ends in 1690.

Volume II begins in 1791 and contains the entries down to the end of 1812. Some further extracts from the Bishop's Transcripts partly supply the vacancy between 1690 and 1791.

These Transcripts have been made by the Rev. C. S. Ruddle, Rector of Durrington, and have been collated with the Registers by him; they are printed with the permission of the Rev. C. N. Arnold, the Vicar of Bulford.

Marriages at Newton Tony,

1591 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Registers of this parish are fairly complete from October, 1591. There is a break during the Commonwealth and the troubled time preceding it, 1641 to 1659, and another soon after the Restoration, February 1666-7 to 1672. There are other periods, varying from three to six years, in which no Marriages were recorded, but it is difficult to say whether the Register was neglected or no Marriages took place; the Marriages, when they appear to have been carefully recorded, varied considerably in different years; thus in 1628 there was one, in 1629 and 1630 none, in 1631 six, and in 1632 one.

Volume I is a parchment book measuring 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches by 6 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches, and contains the Marriages from October 1591 to 15 November 1683.

Volume II contains those between 27 January 1683-4 and 14 August 1738.

Volume III those between 17 November 1739 and 19 September 1752.

Volume IV begins on 15 April 1754 and completes the series down to the end of 1812.

These transcripts have been made by the Rev. C. S. Ruddle, who has kindly collated them with the Registers; they are printed with the permission of the Rev. G. Phillips, the Rector of Newton Tony.

Marriages at Allington,

1623 to 1812.

NOTE.—The earliest Register of Marriages now in existence here begins with an entry dated 11 April 1664; although this volume has the date 1598 on the cover, there are no Marriages recorded during the first sixty-six years. In the Diocesan Registry there are a few Bishop's Transcripts, and seven Marriages of 1623 to 1636 extracted from them are given here. The Transcripts of 1608, 1622, 1624, 1625, 1627, 1628, 1629, 1635, and 1637 contain no records of Marriage. The first volume ends with 1750; the next begins in 1755, and is continued to the end of 1812.

These transcripts have been made and collated with the Registers by the Rev. C. S. Ruddle, Rector of Durrington, and they are printed with the permission of the Rev. H. W. Barclay, the Rector of Allington.

Marriages at Boscombe,

1625 to 1812.

NOTE.—This is a small parish with a population varying between 100 and 150 at different times, and the Marriages consequently are few. Unfortunately there is no Register of earlier date than 1696. Since then and down to 1812 there are two; the first containing the entries between 1696 and 5 Feb. 1754, and the other those from 25 May 1754 to the end of 1812. It is regrettable that there is no trace of the Register presumably kept by Richard (“the judicious”) Hooker while he was Rector here, 1591-5.

Some Marriage entries have been copied from the Bishop’s Transcripts at Salisbury, and they help to fill up the vacancy before 1696, but there are no Marriages recorded in the Transcripts for 1608, 1622, 1623, 1625, 1627, 1631, 1634, 1635, 1637 and 1693.

These transcripts have been made by the Rev. C. S. Ruddle, Rector of Durrington, who has kindly collated them with the Registers; and they are printed with the permission of the Rev. H. W. Barclay, Rector of Boscombe.
