P R E F A C E.

The present volume, the seventh of the series, contains the Marriage Registers of Salisbury Cathedral, and of four parishes in widely different parts of the county. Of these the Cathedral and Purton Registers begin in the sixteenth century, and those of Cholderton, Charlton, and Huish in the seventeenth. With the exception of Cholderton they are practically complete down to the end of 1812.

The Register of the Cathedral is the most important, and, at the same time, the most interesting, as many members of leading families in the County were married there, in addition to the residents in the Close and the Liberty of the Close. The Register appears to be complete from 1564 to the end of 1812, with the exception of a gap between the years 1576 and 1592, and another during the time of the Commonwealth.

The Purton Registers begin in 1558. The three earliest volumes have been re-arranged and bound in one. There may be doubts as to the propriety of the re-arrangement, but there can hardly be any in regard to the binding, which was effected under the superintendence of the late Canon Jackson, in 1886, and has preserved to us three old volumes which were in danger of falling to pieces. This Register also appears to be complete down to the end of 1812, with a few exceptions mentioned where "the register" was said to be lost; and during the periods between 1642 and 1652, and 1690 and 1694.

In the cases of the three other parishes included in this volume the Registers are defective. At Charlton, near Pewsey, and at Huish, the earlier volumes are wanting; but at Cholderton the deficiency is more serious, and shows a deplorable want of proper care of a later date than usual, for here the Register of the period between 1754 and 1812 is lost. Special interest attaches to the Charlton Registers from the fact that Stephen Duck, the "thresher" poet, resided in the parish for some time. Under the date 22 June 1724 is registered the marriage of "Stephen Duck and Ann his wife", and in the same volume are entries of the births of several of his children. It is to be regretted that only the Christian name of the wife is mentioned.

The Editors desire to express their indebtedness to the clergy of the various parishes, the Marriage Registers of which are printed, for their kind assistance and co-operation—to the Rev. Canon and Precentor Carpenter, the Rev. A. E. Brisco Owen, the Rev. John Veysey, the Rev. William Clark, and the Rev. Trevenen J. Reed—and to the Rev. W. Symonds and the Rev. E. Nevill for the transcription and collation of the Cathedral Marriages; the Rev. S. Forster-Brown for the transcription of the Charlton Marriages; and to Mr. J. H. Parry for those of Huish.

They wish to point out again that these transcripts of the Registers are not "evidence" in any legal sense. In cases where certificates are required, application must be made to the clergy who have the custody of the Registers.

The Editors will be greatly obliged for further assistance in the transcription of Registers, as it is only by means of such voluntary assistance that the work can be carried on, and what still remains of these valuable records more surely preserved to posterity.

CORRIGENDUM.

The first paragraph of the Note on the opposite page should read thus :—

NOTE.—The Marriages in Salisbury Cathedral were principally those of residents in the Liberty of the Close and in certain outlying places. The Liberty extended beyond the Close itself, from the Harnham Gate to Harnham Bridge. The outlying places included Clarendon Park, the Earldoms (a hamlet in Landford), Chute Forest, and the Vill of Burley, with Bisterne Close and Park, in the New Forest ; of which Chute Forest was one of the Peculiars of the Dean, the rest being extra-parochial places.

Marriages at Salisbury

(The Cathedral),

1564 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Marriages in Salisbury Cathedral were principally those of residents in the Liberty of the Close, and in certain outlying places subject to the Peculiar Jurisdiction of the Dean. The Liberty extended beyond the Close itself, from the Harnham Gate to Harnham Bridge; and the outlying places under the Dean's Jurisdiction included Clarendon Park, the Earldoms, a hamlet in Landford, Chute Forest, and the Ville of Burley, including Bisterne Close and Park, in the New Forest.

Volume I contains entries of Marriage from 1564 to 1718-19, as well as of Baptism and Burial; it is in good preservation, and well and neatly written throughout. It has been rebound at some period, and at that time the edges of some of the leaves were cut so far back as to obliterate or mutilate some of the entries. The following memorandum shows that the entries before 1631 are copied from an older volume, not now to be found:— "This Register Booke was made written and truly examined accordinge to the antient Booke belonging to the Cathedrall Church of Sarum by the appointment of the Right worth Edmund Mason Doctor of Divinity and Deane of the same Church in the yeare of our Lord God 1631: By mee William London Curate." Another memorandum, as follows, further illustrates its history:— "1 Oct. 1677. This Register booke was then at the George in New Sarum in the County of Wilts p'duced and shewen unto Mr. Derricke Almond at the tyme of his examinaco' as a witness at the execuc'on of a Com'ission issuing out of his Ma^{ties} high Court of Chancery in a cause then dependenge betweene William Willoughby gent and other comp^{ts} and John Peirce gent and his wife and other Defend^{ts} before us John Davis, J. Day, Edward fripp, Wm. Sainsbury."

Volume II begins 1 April 1719 and ends with an entry of 23 March 1754.

Volume III contains the entries from 9 May 1754 to 22 July 1809, and Volume IV contains the entries to the end of 1812.

These transcripts have been made by the Rev. W. Symonds, M.A., of St. Andrew's Mission, Salisbury; they have been collated with the originals by the Rev. E. Nevill, and are printed with the kind permission of the Rev. Precentor Carpenter, M.A., Vicar of the Close.

Marriages at Cholderton,

1664 to 1752.

NOTE.—The only Marriage Register prior to 1813 still existing in this parish commences in 1652. It is a volume containing entries of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials from that date; the earliest Marriage recorded is dated 12 September 1664, and the last 25 December 1752, but the Baptisms and Burials continue to be entered down to the end of 1812. There is a gap between 1707 and 1711. When Bishop Fraser was appointed Rector here in 1847, he could not find any Register of Marriages between 1752 and 1813, and he recorded the fact in a note on p. 8 of this volume.

A few entries have been extracted from the Bishop's Transcripts preserved at Salisbury. They have been kindly supplied by the Rev. C. S. Ruddle, Rector of Durrington, and are printed here with his permission. There are four for the period before 1652, and fourteen for that between 31 January 1796 and the end of 1812; but unfortunately nothing has been found to help to fill the gap between 1752 and 1796.

The transcripts from the Register have been made and collated with the originals by the Rev. A. E. Brisco Owen, Rector of Cholderton, and are printed with his kind permission.

Marriages at Purton,

1558 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Marriage Registers of this Parish before the year 1813 are now in three volumes.

Volume I, which commences in 1558, is made up of three older books, and contains on the fly-leaf the following note:—"The oldest Registers of Purton, consisting of three thin Books in parchment covers, being in very bad condition, the binding and leaves very loose, and the entries sometimes made on pages quite out of the regular place, were at my request re-arranged by the Rev. Canon J. E. Jackson, Rector of Leigh Delamere, and then bound together in this single volume, an index being prefixed, and the pages being numbered for easier reference. John Veysey, Vicar of Purton, August 1886." It is now a book of 244 parchment pages, bound in rough calf; the earliest of the three volumes it contains was apparently a copy of a still earlier volume, as there are notes of the register of Marriages of 1564, 1566 and 1567, 1569, and 1571 to 1573 being lost. The last entry is dated 21 February 1736-7; and internal evidence seems to show that the two other books, now bound into this volume, ended respectively on 4 November 1641 and 26 October 1674.

Volume II contains the entries from 31 May 1737, to 24 February 1754.

Volume III, made up of the printed forms then adopted, contains the entries from 26 August 1754 to the end of 1812.

These transcripts have been made from the first volume by Mr. A. St. J. Story-Maskelyne and Mr. S. J. Elyard, and from the others by the Rev. J. Veysey, Vicar of Purton; they have been collated with the originals, and are printed with Mr. Veysey's permission.

Marriages at Charlton, near Pewsey,

1696 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Marriage Registers of this Parish, down to the end of 1812, consist of two volumes.

Volume I is of parchment in a stiff parchment cover, and contains the entries from 25 October 1696 to 14 November 1737. The entries are not numerous, but there would appear to be a gap between 27 October 1712 and 3 May 1720; a further gap—seventeen years—occurs between the end of this volume and the beginning of the next.

Volume II begins with an entry of 4 November 1754, and ends with the year 1812.

These transcripts have been made by the Rev. S. Forster-Brown, M.A., the late Vicar of Charlton; they have been collated with the Registers, and are printed with the permission of the Rev. William Clark, M.A., the present Vicar.

Marriages at Huish,

1684 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Marriage Registers here before the end of 1812 are very defective. The Registers begin in the year 1603, but the earliest marriage recorded took place in 1684; the next in 1704. From that date they appear to have been regularly recorded until March 1754, after which there is a gap ending on 19 December 1782, and thenceforward the Marriages are entered on loose sheets torn from a book of printed forms.

These transcripts have been made by Mr. J. H. Parry; they have been collated with the original entries, and are printed with the permission of the Rev. Trevenen J. Reed, the Rector of Huish.
